

The Indiana 'No Call' law has benefited me greatly and I do not want to see it removed and replaced with a weaker federal law. The number of telemarketing calls has been reduced from 40-50/week to less than 5. The unwanted telemarketing calls require walking through three rooms to answer the phone. My wife has arthritis and this is a big inconvenience to her. Thank you for your consideration